

Two servicemen killed in Artsakh: NKR Defense Ministry vows retaliation

STEPANAKERT, APRIL 30, ARMENPRESS. Two servicemen of Artsakh Defense Army were killed as a result of violation of armistice agreement by Azerbaijan, NKR Defense Ministry press service informed “Armenpress”.

“Azerbaijan continued to violate the armistice agreement along the entire contact line of Karabakh-Azerbaijan opposing forces overnight April 30, in addition to gunfire weapons using also 60 and 82 mm mortars and different types of grenade launchers. Servicemen Garik Movsisyan (1997) and Vazgen Harutyunyan (1968) received fatal injuries as a result of the armistice violation by Azerbaijan in the northern (Talish) direction.

NKR Defense Ministry shares the huge grieve of the loss and expresses solidarity with the family members, relatives and co-servicemen of the killed soldiers. NKR Defense Ministry announces that the activities of the adversary will not remain un-responded, while the Azerbaijani side will bear the responsibility for their consequences”, reads the press release of NKR Defense Ministry.