

Frank Engel: NKR independence should be recognized

23/04/2016

"I once again declare that the independence of the Nagorno Karabakh Republic should be recognized," said member of the European Parliament, Frank Engel during a briefing after his speech at the Second Global Forum against the Crime of Genocide.

He said that Artsakh is an independent country and the international community should recognize it as such.

"I'm going now to meet the President of Armenia and express my position," Engel said.
