

Azerbaijan threatens Mayor of French city who cooperates with Artsakh's Shushi

YEREVAN, APRIL 21

.Azerbaijan represented by its ambassador to France Elchin Amirbayov sent to the Mayor of Bourg-Les-Valence commune of Drôme department in southeastern France a warning document, taking into account the Charter of cooperation between the French commune and the city Shushi in Nagorno Karabakh Republic. “Armenpress” reports, citing francebleu.fr website, the warning letter arrived at the Municipality of Bourg-Les-Valence on April 21. Mayor of Bourg-les-Valence Marlène Mourier noted that he views the letter as a real threat by Azerbaijan, because of which, however, he does not intend to retreat. The mayor stressed that the cooperation and friendship between Shushi and Bourg-les-Valence will continue.
